Overall Expectations

The expectations for this course align with the Ontario College of Teachers Standards of Practice: “Together, the ethical standards and the standards of practice provide the foundation for pre-service and in-service teacher education. These principles of practice are based on the premise that personal and professional growth is a developmental process. Teacher candidates in a pre-service teacher education program pursue professional learning consistent with the standards at an appropriate level for beginning teachers.”

Teacher Candidates’ Roles/Responsibilities for the Academic Year 2011-2012

Professionalism
The education provided by teachers is the foundation for the advancement of knowledge, democratic principles, ethical behaviour, and personal fulfillment. Teachers’ professional responsibilities require that they are expert in the disciplines in which they teach and accomplished in the field of pedagogy. They are answerable for their competencies in the discharge of these dual responsibilities which, in turn, carry the imperative to ensure the academic achievement, emotional well-being, and personal safety of the pupils in their care. The importance of these responsibilities requires that teachers maintain the highest levels of academic knowledge, teaching skills, and ethical conduct.

Teachers are expected to lead by example by promoting scholarship, maintaining the integrity of the profession, and contributing to the public good. In furtherance of these expectations society has granted teachers the right to professional organization through the Teaching Profession Act and professional self-regulation through the Ontario College of Teachers Act.

As associate members of the Ontario Teachers’ Federation, all teacher candidates are bound by the ethical and professional standards of the Teaching Profession Act. Teacher candidates and all practicing professional teachers in Ontario are bound by the Ontario College of Teachers Foundations of Professional Practice.

Professional Conduct
All teacher candidates in the Bachelor of Education and Diploma in Education programs are expected to develop and demonstrate the attributes and behaviours of a professional teacher. These attributes and behaviours are expressed in the following documents:

• Foundations of Professional Practice Member’s Handbook (Ontario College of Teachers, 2010);
• Education Act (Revised Statutes of Ontario, as amended);
• Regulation 298, Operation of Schools-General (Revised Regulations of Ontario, as amended);
• Regulation Under the Teaching Profession Act, Sections 13 through 18.

Attendance, Course Work and Conduct
Students must be registered in a course(s) to be eligible to attend or otherwise participate in lectures, tutorials, assignments, tests, and examinations associated with the course(s). Students are expected to be and, at the discretion of the instructor, may be required to be present at all lectures, tutorials, tests, and examinations in their courses and to submit assignments at the prescribed times. Student conduct in lectures, laboratories, tutorials, tests and examinations must conform to the University’s Code of Conduct.

A student who claims illness or compassionate grounds as reason for missing lectures, tutorials, assignments, tests, or examinations is responsible for making alternative arrangements with the instructors concerned. In most cases, this should not require medical or other documentation. If there is a significant effect on attendance or academic performance the student must provide documentation with any request for accommodation and appeal directly to the instructor in a timely manner.

At the discretion of the instructor, an assigned alternate learning activity may be expected to be completed within a mutually convenient time frame if a class is missed.

It is a matter of your professional responsibility to be prepared for class and be on time.

Academic Integrity
All breaches of academic integrity are considered serious offences within the University community and a student who commits such an offence runs the risk of a range of sanctions including a failure in the course or a requirement to withdraw from the University. Departure from academic integrity includes plagiarism which means presenting work done (in whole or in part) by someone else as if it were one's own. For complete details, please see http://www.queensu.ca/calendars/education/Academic_Dishonesty.html

Disability Accommodations
Queen's University is committed to achieving full accessibility for people with disabilities. Part of this commitment includes arranging academic accommodations for students with disabilities to ensure they have an equitable opportunity to participate in all of their academic activities. If you are a student with a disability and think you may need accommodations, you are strongly encouraged to contact the Disability Services Office (DSO) and register as early as possible. For more information, including important deadlines, please visit the DSO website at: http://www.queensu.ca/hcds/ds/

If you have accommodations that have been approved through the DSO, please advise your instructors as soon as possible so that your accommodations are implemented.
